HOW TO BOOK

To book SCHOOL visits for our festival, we are using Eventbrite for ease of booking, so you can reserve your tickets for free in advance. All student tickets are charged at €5.50 each, and you will receive an invoice from us after booking. If you cancel less than a week before the event or fail to attend, you will be charged the full amount. Teachers and SNAs can attend for free. Reserve your tickets early, as film screenings book out quickly. GENERATION Fleadh reserves the right to cancel or amend bookings at any time for operational reasons. Please arrive on time to the screening.

FILM CLASSIFICATION

Certain films featured in our programme contain content for over 18's and mild profanity. Viewer discretion is advised, and we encourage attendees to familiarise themselves with the film's content or age rating, and to make informed choices accordingly. Your comfort and enjoyment at the screenings are of utmost importance to us, and we appreciate your cooperation in maintaining a respectful atmosphere for all festivalgoers. Please contact us if you need information on a film's suitability at generation@filmfleadh.ie

All films will start on time. There are no trailers in advance of the films.

Please note that a photographer will be present at all GENERATION Fleadh events.

A MUST SEE if your school has introduced Film as part of the Senior Cycle.*

France • 1995 • 98' • Narrative • Subtitled • 15+

After a youth is tortured by the police, a riot explodes on the streets of Paris. Vinz, Said and Hubert find a gun lost by the police in the riots and threaten to kill a cop if their friend dies. Mathieu Kassovitz's sensational second feature as a director changed the cultural landscape of French cinema when it landed at the Cannes Film Festival in 1995, winning the Best Director prize. It went on to become one of the defining films of its generation and a stone-cold classic of Nineties cinema.

1979, New Mexico, USA. Olmo is stuck. Today is his turn to take care of his sick father, even though he is only 14 years old and would much rather be hanging out with his best friend, Miguel. When he gets invited to a party by his beautiful neighbour, Nina, he will do whatever he can to get out of his duties, embarking on a journey of mischief and chaos. As the night unfolds, he may come to love the very place he's spent so long trying to escape.

Eleven-year-old Santino is a child of the circus. He loves to spend time with his eighty-year-old great-grandfather, one of Europe's last great circus directors, who has become his best friend. Together, they share heartwarming stories: tales of a friendship with an elephant, of farewells, new beginnings, and life on the road. CIRCUSBOY chronicles the lives of these modern nomads, capturing a young boy's experience growing up among an extended family and animals—a life without a safety net, as free as a bird.

Fidil Ghorm tells the story of a 10-year-old girl called Molly who believes that if she learns to play the fiddle like her dad did she can wake him up from a coma. In the rehab home there is a grumpy man, Malachy, whom she hears one day play the fiddle beautifully and she is told that he has 'magic in his hands'. They eventually make a connection and thus begins her journey to find magic in the music and hopefully cure her dad.

Post show discussion with director Anne McCabe will follow.

Spilt Milk follows 11-year-old Bobby O'Brien, a precocious and energetic boy obsessed with becoming a great detective like his hero, television sensation, Kojak. Set against the backdrop of 1980s working-class, inner-city Dublin, Bobby and his pal Nell torment their family, friends, and neighbours as they set up their own private investigation enterprise. When Bobby's big brother Oisin disappears Bobby and Nell must embark on a quest to find him.
